University of Technology:

The majority of our study programs are taught in German. Only our Master degree programs Mining Engineering, Computer Science, Chemistry, Intelligent Manufacturing and Petroleum Engineering as well as our International Business Management Semester (October - March) are taught entirely in English.

Therefore, our general language requirement for a student to be accepted at our university is B2 of German. In case students consider to do any course in English, then a B2 level of English is required.

I am aware that the language of instruction in all other programs will be German and that exams will be held in German

I have knowledge of the German Language (for those studying a program taught in German) yes.

I am aware that German language proficiency of at least level B2 according to the European Reference Frame is required to follow lectures in German and to pass exams in German successfully yes

Please state your language proficiency level _____

I herewith declare that all the information given is true.

- Please note that if you should choose to stay longer than two semesters, you will no longer be considered an exchange student. You will be considered as degree-seeking student and subject to tuition and all other fees.
- According to the Erasmus+ guidelines laid down by the European Commission, each student participating in the Erasmus+-program has to have sufficient knowledge of the language of instruction at the host university. A German language certificate of at least B2 is required. TU Clausthal reserves the right to make final judgements on the admissibility of each student nominated for the exchange.

– Please do not forget to apply online for a room in one of the local dorms when sending in this application!!
