

International Staff Training Week (ISTW) 2013

Zahia Turpin Ecole Nationale Supérieure de Chimie , France	I would like to thank all the team of IZC for this enriching experience. I appreciated both the environment as well as the intense programme that was prepared for us in a very professional way. We could just feel at home !! I recommend it to everyone. Clausthal and its region are lovely and I will certainly recommend it as a destination to my students. It was also a unique opportunity for networking, sharing good experiences, and making friends.
Fulya Alagöz İzmir University of Economics, Turkey	It was a great experience to observe TU Clausthal. The programme was organized perfectly to observe how works go on at International Center. All the presentations were full of information. I have lots of new information to share with in my University. The leisure activities were full of fun to know about the town. And also thank to IZC staff because of their warm welcome and interest.
Enrique Moreno Soffia Universidad Finis Terrae, Chile	I'm glad to have participated in the ISTW at TU Clausthal. It gave me the opportunity to do networking and to get to know better the university, the life style of the students and the attractions of this beautiful region.
Vida Senci Polytechnic of Zagreb, Croatia	ISTW in Clausthal completely fulfilled my expectations. I have learned into more details about TU Clausthal, it's programmes and opportunities it offers to all students. It was also a great opportunity to meet people from various Universities and make new connections and create new cooperation possibilities. The organization of ISTW was excellent and the whole TUC team made me feel really welcome and comfortable.
Zoe Kanellopoulou University of Patras, Greece	After spending a week at the IZC's Staff Training Week, I was left with an exceptionally good impression of the university, the town, and the natural surroundings. By far, the importance of internationality is greatly emphasized and can be seen in every area of life here. I highly recommend the whole TU Clausthal experience!
Wallace Isaac University of Pretoria, South Africa	The level of professionalism, excellent organisation and warmth I experienced from the TU Clausthal - IZC team, truly exceeded my level of expectation. I can see why TU Clausthal is a preferred study destination among international students and colleagues. Your training week was not only informative but also motivational.
